Heard Sri G.S. Bisht, learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A.

This is dowry death case. The applicant-accused is husband of the deceased. There is specific allegation in the F.I.R. that when he went to bring his wife from the house of her parents he was given a sum of Rs. 20,000/- and he was not feeling satisfied. This indicate that there was demand of extra dowry in terms of money from his side. The death had taken place within 4 ½ months of the marriage. Considering the gravity of the offence the accused-applicant is not entitled for bail and therefore the bail application is dismissed.
